

You do have a Choice!

Congratulations on making it to your senior year! With the senior year also comes senior pictures. Most schools in our area require you to go to a certain photographer to get your year book picture taken. They will tell you that this is your senior pictures, hoping that you will buy their images.

Remember, they are the yearbook photographer and you have a choice on who you want to have your “real” senior pictures done with.

There are several different photographers though out the area with different styles of photography. It’s up to you to decide what kind of senior pictures you want.

Do you want a more traditional session, or maybe a fashion type session? Maybe you have a favorite pet or other animal that you want pictures with?

Maybe you want to go to one of the parks in the valley to have your senior pictures done, or someplace else, like the Indy Zoo ,St Louis! Maybe you want more of a model style session with professional hair and makeup.

It’s up to you to decide what you want do, not the school!

If you have any questions, please call, text or email.
